A New Parish is Born

The Parish of the Immaculate Conception & Assumption of Our Lady

On August 1, 2015 my letter of appointment from Timothy Cardinal Dolan made me the first Pastor of a new parish in the Archdiocese of New York. Merging the two historically rich and important parishes of Immaculate Conception and Assumption into a single family in Tuckahoe and Eastchester, NY would form the parish. Throughout the Archdiocese of New York the two-year project of Making All Things New concluded with the merger and I want to thank Deacon Anthony Viola and the members of the parishes that joined the cluster to assist Cardinal Dolan in this monumental effort.

I feel privileged to follow so many wonderful pastors of the independent Parishes and now under the guidance of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, to pastor these flocks of many decades and yet reborn as a new single faith community. It does not feel strange to me to be among you since I taught Adult Education for Msgr. Anthony Maltese here in the late 1980's; would cover Masses occasionally for Fr. Ron Ciaravolo at Assumption; Msgr. Frank Oliverio was a household name and personality from his years at St. Lucy's in the Bronx. I was Dean and Professor of Sacred Music for 15 years at Dunwoodie where many of you came to concerts and visits including the extraordinary visit of St. John Paul II on October 5, 1995. Since my ordination in 1982, I have celebrated the Funeral Masses of my cousins the Marruzella family who lived in the parish and sponsored my godson at your Baptismal font at Immaculate Conception – to name a few.

It will take some time for me to meet all of you. I have already begun by popping by during the month of August and stopping in the Churches, the Bible camp, meeting the staff, and saying a few prayers. Be patient because there is one of me and you are thousands. I thank Fr. Eric Raaser for his warm welcome and transitioning. It has been difficult for me leaving St. James in Carmel, and I know Fr. Raaser shares the same feelings as we send him to his next assignment assured of our prayers, thanks and love.

Lastly, I ask for your prayers as I begin this adventure as the first pastor of the NEW Parish of Immaculate Conception and Assumption of Our Lady. Change is always hard but let us keep our eyes on the Lord and care for His flock: the people of God entrusted to our care. Please pray for me, Fr. Paul and Ms. Katy Feeney, your new Director of Religious Education as we begin to minister among you.

God Bless you,

Father Anthony Domenic Sorgie

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastor: Reverend Anthony Sorgie
Rev. Ransford Clarke • Rev. Paul Waddell • Deacon Anthony Viola

This unsolicited letter comes for the President of the Pastoral Council of St. James the Apostle

To Immaculate Conception and Assumption of Our Lady Parishioners,

I wanted to write this letter to all of you in regards to receiving your new pastor, Fr. Anthony Dominic Sorgie. Fr. Sorgie has been with us at St. James the Apostle Parish in Carmel, New York for 14+ years and we could not have been more blessed. I have become a close friend of Fr. Sorgie over his 14 year stay with us. We have laughed and cried over these many years and shared many a conversation over a cup of espresso. It has been a very sad time for us since hearing of his new assignment but our love and prayers go with him always.

I have been on many councils, ministries and projects have gained a wealth of knowledge about our church, our religion and our priests. Never take your priest for granted. These are awesome men who have chosen a life of servitude to our Lord and to his people.

Fr. Sorgie has not only been an inspiration to his parishioners but a teacher, mentor and caretaker to the many other priests who have shared his residence over the years. You will find Fr. Sorgie a warm and friendly presence and within a short period of time, he will come to know and greet most everyone by name. I am a bit biased when it comes to my friend Fr. Sorgie but I find him brilliant in so many ways and most of all - the liturgy. He is meticulous in everything that he does and rarely, if ever, misses any detail. He is open and above board with everything that goes on in his parish. His mantra is complete transparency with his parishioners. If we are doing any type of fund raiser, you will find the results of every nickel collected and being spent in the weekly bulletin. He values and welcomes your input in the administration of your parish. I suggest you go up to him after Mass, introduce yourself and get to know this wonderful man. You will not regret it.

Fr. Sorgie has the type of personality that makes people want to offer their time, treasure and talent. He is warm and inviting; fun loving and enthusiastic about his parish and all its aspects. Over his time as your pastor, you will be treated to some fantastic moments but I leave that for you to enjoy rather than spin all my memories of what he has accomplished for St. James the Apostle. I believe that you will see for yourself all that I have written here today and much more. I know that you must be somewhat sad to lose your pastor as are we to lose ours but I truly believe that you will come to know and love this wonderful man as we have over these many years.

Fr. Sorgie's friends and acquaintances spread far and wide and soon you will get to know many of his circles of friends and relatives. He is a wealth of knowledge, is always willing to share that knowledge and always has the best interest of his parish at heart. I have been personally blessed with his friendship and warmth these many years. Our families have intermingled and our Bronx roots have made for a wonderful friendship. I cherish the years we spent together, deeply regret that he must move on but will always be there for and with him. I want to impress upon you the quality and character of the man you will now call your pastor and very soon, your friend.

In closing I pray that you take very good care of my dear friend and your new pastor, Fr. Sorgie.

Sincerely Yours in Christ

Pat Stellacci

St. James the Apostle Pastoral Council President

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 35:4-7A

Isaiah looks forward to the defeat of the enemies of the people followed by a period of restoration. The passage foreshadows the miracles of Christ and time of redemption. The promise of salvation is likened to a flowering of the desert, in which streams and springs of water will flow. Physical healings will mark the coming of the kingdom.

SECOND READING: JAMES 2:1-5

St. James admonishes us to not judge or relate to people based upon their outward appearance.

GOSPEL: MARK 7:31-37

The power of Jesus' Word is manifest as he heals the man who could not physically hear Jesus' spoken words. Jesus gives orders not to talk about the cure of the deaf man. St. Mark wants us to know that Jesus is so much more than a healer. His full identity will only be apparent after the cross and resurrection.

If you have a question about any aspect of our Catholic Church and Faith, just drop us a note or call and we will answer them to the best of our ability.

1. WHY DO WE GENUFLECT?

Genuflection is the placing of your right knee on the floor while keeping your back straight. This Roman custom was a sign of reverence and humility toward the Lord or Emperor. Since there is only one LORD Jesus Christ, Catholics use this practice when in the presence of the Eucharist or facing the Tabernacle. When you enter a Catholic Church you should always face the Tabernacle and genuflect whether you are passing the Altar or entering your pew.

VOCATION SUMMIT

ST. JOSEPH SEMINARY - FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9

Do you love the priesthood and religious life? Would you like to learn more about how you can promote vocations in your parish? Then join us for a delicious meal, free of charge, at St. Joseph Seminary in Yonkers on October 9 from 6 to 9 PM. Our guest speaker is Rhonda Gruenewald, an expert from Houston who has literally “written the book” on how to effectively run a parish-based vocations ministry. Also at the dinner, we’ll unveil our new four-point Archdiocesan Vocation Plan. Please note: Attending the dinner does not obligate you to more volunteer duties. It is a night to learn, be inspired, and perhaps take home some best practices to your parish. See more details and RSVP at
